Pathfinder RPG - Carrion Crown AP 6: Shadows of Gallowspire

Chapter 6: "Shadows of Gallowspire"

by Brandon Hodge

A mad plot to unleash the greatest necromancer the world has ever known draws to its sinister end. As the murderous cultists of the Whispering Way retreat to their profane sanctuary, the powers of death align to resurrect their fallen champion. Bold adventurers pursue these villains, but can their bravery survive the haunted wasteland of Virlych, the accursed cathedral of Renchurch, and ultimately the towering crypt of Gallowspire? And will their boldness be enough to stop the Whispering Tyrant, the infamous lich-king locked away beneath Ustalav's deadliest ruin, from being reborn upon a defenseless world? The heroes must test their courage against the servants of death itself in this, the climactic final chapter of the Carrion Crown Adventure Path.

4.08.06. HG. THE UPPER SHEATH (CR 14)

The exposed steps of the Bone Stair once more plunge through the black stone of Gallowspire's walls, storm waters gushing from a dark passage ahead. The stair emerges into a large chamber inside the tower's flared apex. The gray sky churns as the final height of Gallowspire continues upward from the center of the chamber, stabbing toward the dark clouds above, the towering blades decorating its rooftop reflecting flashes of purple lightning. Shadows dance among the gloom, and strange, inhuman cries echo shrilly throughout the vault.

Gallowspire's upper walls flare out from the core of the black spire, creating a tower that protrudes from the ceiling. After its brief plunge through the sheath, the Bone Stair continues its peak of Gallowspire's roof. The city the storm overhead, and the chud through the stairwell makes this a safe place to shelter the area somewhat, storm's swirling winds and the peering flying creatures.
